Title IX Harassment Defined

What is Title IX Harassment¹

- ▶ Title IX prohibits sex discrimination in the programs and activities of all educational institutions, including school-sponsored activities or travel that occur away from school, so long as the institution receives federal financial assistance.
- ▶ Title IX prohibits different treatment on the basis of sex in all aspects of a school's education programs or activities with respect to both students and staff
- ▶ Title IX prohibits retaliation against an individual for opposing or reporting discrimination, complaining about discrimination, or participating in a discrimination investigation.
- ▶ Title IX requires schools to have policies and procedures that are important for the prevention and correction of sex discrimination.
- ▶ Title IX also can prohibit policies and procedures that disproportionately affect women or girls in an adverse way, even if those policies and procedures appear neutral.
- ▶ Title IX requires schools to adopt policies and procedures that are important for the prevention and correction of sex discrimination.
- ▶ (NEW as of 08/16/20) – Title IX also expressly covers dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and unwanted/non-consensual sexual conduct as a form of Sexual Harassment

What is Title IX Harassment

- ▶ As of May, 2020, Title IX regulations were amended, which were finalized on August 14, 2020, to make clear that Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination covered by Title IX (and Title VII – more later).
- ▶ Regulations include expansive definitions under federal law with overlap under New York State Law, which is in some areas more expansive
- ▶ Sexual harassment is now defined under 34 C.F.R. §106.30 as conduct that occurs on the basis of sex that also satisfies one of the following:
 - ▶ An employee of the recipient conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the recipient on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct;
 - ▶ Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the recipient's education program or activity; or
 - ▶ Qualifies as “Sexual assault”, “dating violence”, “domestic violence”, or “stalking” as defined under Federal Law (Violence Against Women’s Act)
- ▶ Conduct effectively denies (removes language re the lower standard of “limits”) equal access when:
 - ▶ An employee conditions a student’s participation or bases an educational decision or benefit on the student’s submission to sexual conduct; or
 - ▶ An employee, another student, or a third party creates a hostile environment that is sufficiently objectively offense that effectively denies a student’s ability to participate in or benefit from the school’s program or activity.

What is Title IX Harassment

- ▶ While sexual harassment is a concern for schools generally, it could be of particular concern in STEM areas or other programs where there are historically and/or frequently small numbers of female students in such courses or programs of study. Small numbers increase the potential that female students may become targets of harassment.
- ▶ Title IX may still prohibits gender-based harassment, which is prohibited under New York State Law.
- ▶ Harassing conduct based on sex or sex stereotypes may or may not still be barred, even if the harassment is not sexual in nature, but it is still prohibited under New York State Law.
- ▶ Examples include:
 - ▶ A student harassing a fellow student by altering his/her lab results because of his/her sex.
 - ▶ A student harassing another student and refusing to be his/her lab partner in a physics class or CTE class because s/he thinks s/he will not be able to handle the work seriously because of his/her sex.
 - ▶ A teacher refusing to assign a partner to work with a female students because the teacher thinks the female student cannot/will not be able to handle the work seriously because of her sex

Additionally, the new August 14, 2020 regulations impose on Schools certain obligations with respect to meeting certain standards to investigation and process allegations or claims of Sexual Harassment, referred to as a “grievance” process (34 C.F.R. §106.45)

What is Title IX Harassment Policy Requirements

- ▶ Requirement that the Title IX Coordinator, investigators, decision-makers receive training as required by Title IX.
- ▶ Description of the potential sanctions to be imposed upon a harasser where there is a determination that a complainant has been sexually harassed.
- ▶ State the evidentiary standard to be used in all cases: “clear and convincing” or “preponderance of evidence.”
- ▶ Under New York Human Rights law, contractors can also be accused of Title IX violations

What is Title IX Harassment Publication and Procedures

- ▶ (NEW) Title IX Policy Requirements (08/14/20) – Schools required to have a Policy that also addresses the process for handling Formal Complaints made under Title IX, referred to as a “grievance process.” – Similar under New York Law

What is Title IX Harassment Publication and Procedures

Current District policies that could address sexual harassment now:

- ▶ Policy prohibiting harassment of students under the Dignity for All Students Act.
- ▶ Code of Conduct Policy.
- ▶ Policies proclaiming nondiscrimination against students and/or employees and applicants for employment.
- ▶ Policy prohibiting sexual harassment of employees, interns, and independent contractors under the NY Human Rights Law.
- ▶ Coordinate existing policies – to make certain that if a Formal Complaint is filed under the Title IX policy, it must be handled in accordance with the process under a New Unified Title IX and not under any other policy.
- ▶ Consider how principals, Dignity Act Coordinators, Human Resources personnel, and the Title IX Coordinator need to communicate among themselves regarding reports of sexual harassment.

What is Title IX Harassment Investigation Requirements

Under New Regulations effective August 14, 2020, Schools must:

- ▶ Respond promptly when any school employee has notice of sexual harassment, including sexual assault
- ▶ New regulation extends to all aspects of a school's education program or activity and applies to any activity controlled or operated by the school, or any building owned or controlled by school
- ▶ If a survivor (accuser/complainant) chooses to participate in a grievance process, accusers cannot be inappropriately being asked about prior sexual history (also known as "rape shield" protections), and a survivor is not be required to divulge any medical, psychological, or similarly privileged records.

What is Title IX Harassment Investigation Requirements

- ▶ Schools must take immediate and appropriate action to investigate or otherwise determine what happened.
- ▶ The inquiry must be prompt, thorough, and impartial.
- ▶ Procedures must provide equal opportunity for both Parties to appeal a determination and decision
- ▶ If harassment occurs, schools must take prompt and effective steps reasonably calculated to end the harassment, eliminate any hostile environment, and prevent it from happening again to the victim or to others.
- ▶ For Example:
 - ▶ If a student files a sexual harassment complaint with the school against her teacher and the school determines that a hostile environment has been created, it must take steps to end the harassment, eliminate the hostile environment, and prevent its recurrence. Potential remedies should include allowing the student to have a new class or teacher.
 - ▶ If a school is made aware that a particular teacher denigrates the answers that are provided by female students but not similar answers by male students and this causes a hostile environment, it must take steps to end the conduct, eliminate the hostile environment, and prevent its recurrence. This may include speaking with that teacher and providing appropriate training.

What is Title IX Harassment Applicable to Employment

Title IX can also apply in the context of Employment
IN THE SAME MANNER AS TITLE VII

- ▶ Schools may not discriminate on the basis of sex in employment or recruitment, including but not limited to hiring, promotion, consideration of and award of tenure, grants of leave, benefits, and selection and financial support for training. (34 C.F.R. § 106.51)

What is Title IX Harassment¹

Prohibited Retaliation

Title IX prohibits retaliation against any individual for:

- ▶ Opposing or reporting discrimination, complaining about discrimination, or participating in a discrimination investigation.

(34 C.F.R. §106.71; 34 C.F.R. §100.7(e))
- ▶ If a student files a complaint alleging that a school discriminated against her on the basis of sex concerning course work, grades, access to extra-curricular activities, etc, the school must ensure that the student is not subjected to retaliation.

What is Title IX Harassment Prohibited Retaliation

Additionally, as of 08/14/20, Title IX prohibitions on retaliation also include:

- ▶ Intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination, including charges against an individual for code of conduct violations that do not involve sex discrimination or sexual harassment, but arise out of the same facts or circumstances as a report or complaint of sex discrimination, or a report or formal complaint of sexual harassment, for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by title IX or this part, constitutes retaliation. (34 CFR § 106.71 (a))
- ▶ The recipient of a complaint must keep confidential the identity of any individual who has made a report or complaint of sex discrimination, including any individual who has made a report or filed a formal complaint of sexual harassment, any complainant, any individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of sex discrimination, any respondent, and any witness, except as may be permitted by the FERPA statute, or as required by law, or to carry out the purposes of 34 CFR part 106, including the conduct of any investigation, hearing, or judicial proceeding arising thereunder.

Specific Circumstances under § 106.71

- ▶ (1) The exercise of rights protected under the First Amendment does not constitute retaliation prohibited under this section.
- ▶ (2) Charging an individual with a code of conduct violation for making a materially false statement in bad faith in the course of a grievance proceeding under this part does not constitute retaliation prohibited under paragraph (a) of this section, provided, however, that a determination regarding responsibility, alone, is not sufficient to conclude that any party made a materially false statement in bad faith.

34 CFR § 106.45 - August 14, 2020 – Updated Title IX Grievance (complaint) procedures
– Similar to the older requirements and with NYS Requirements:

 - ▶ Sufficient details include the identities of the parties involved in the incident, if known, the conduct allegedly constituting sexual harassment under § 106.30, and the date and location of the alleged incident, if known.
 - ▶ The written notice must include a statement that the respondent is presumed not responsible for the alleged conduct and that a determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of the grievance process.
 - ▶ The written notice must inform the parties that they may have an advisor of their choice, who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney, and may inspect and review evidence.
 - ▶ The written notice must inform the parties of any provision in the recipient's code of conduct that prohibits knowingly making false statements or knowingly submitting false information during the grievance process
- ▶ If NEW claims or allegations arise during course of the investigation, a NEW notice of Allegations must be issued to the accused for those allegations.

What is Title IX Harassment Grievance (Complaint) Procedures

34 CFR § 106.45 – Grievance and Complaint Procedures:

- ▶ If the conduct alleged in the formal complaint would not constitute sexual harassment as defined in § 106.30 even if proved, did not occur in the recipient's education program or activity, or did not occur against a person in the United States, then the recipient must dismiss the formal complaint with regard to Title IX
- ▶ The recipient may dismiss the formal complaint or any allegations therein, if at any time during the investigation or hearing: A complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator in writing that the complainant would like to withdraw the formal complaint or any allegations therein; the respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by the recipient; or specific circumstances prevent the recipient from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination as to the formal complaint or allegations therein.
- ▶ Upon a dismissal, the recipient must promptly send written notice of the dismissal and reason(s) therefor simultaneously to the parties

Title VII Harassment Defined

- ▶ New York State Executive Law §296 et seq (New York Human Rights Law)

- ▶ The ONLY issue: Are members of different sexes/races/ethnicities treated differently on account of their sex/race/ethnicity?

What is Title VII Harassment

For Prohibited Sexual Harassment Under Title VII:

▶ IS IT SEXUAL HARASSMENT?

- ▶ Unwanted and unwelcome.
- ▶ Interferes with your performance at work or school; creates intimidating or hostile environment.
- ▶ Could be dangerous.
- ▶ Causes uncomfortable feelings.
- ▶ Designed or does make victim feel powerless.
- ▶ Negatively influences work performance.
- ▶ Sexual in nature.

What is Title VII Harassment

TITLE VII does not prohibit all conduct of a sexual nature...it only forbids conduct which becomes a term or condition of employment.

▶ Unwelcomed Conduct:

- ▶ Acquiescence in sexual conduct may not mean that the conduct is welcome.
- ▶ The charging party need not have confronted her offending supervisor where she feared retaliation, so long as her actions and comments demonstrated that the conduct was unwelcome.
- ▶ Standard – Plaintiff can not prevail if s/he unreasonably refused to take advantage of corrective measures.

▶ Quid Pro Quo Conduct:

- ▶ Occurs when submission to unwelcome sexual conduct is made an explicit or implicit term or condition of an individual's employment.

What is Title VII Harassment

TITLE VII does not prohibit all conduct of a sexual nature...it only forbids conduct which becomes a term or condition of employment.

- ▶ The day-to-day working environment is polluted with verbal or physical abuses.
- ▶ Unwelcome sexual conduct unreasonably interferes with job performance or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.

 - ▶ Offensive utterances.
 - ▶ The more severe the conduct, the less pervasive it must be.
 - ▶ Environment
 - ▶ Did the conduct occur in view of others?
 - ▶ Consequences of conduct upon plaintiff
 - ▶ Plaintiff's unreasonable delay in reporting harassment

What is Title VII Harassment

Employer Requirements regarding Title VII Claims and Investigations

- ▶ Employers must take timely and effective action to prevent sexual harassment.
- ▶ Employers and managers may be held personally liable for damages due to harassment.
- ▶ A “reasonable woman” standard MAY be used by the court to identify sexual harassment.
- ▶ Ellison v Brady (1991): Unless the conduct is quite severe, isolated incidents of sexual conduct or statements do not create a hostile environment. BUT, they do create an obligation on the part of a concerned employer to prevent a recurrent of the offensive act or statementt

What is Title VII Harassment

Employer Liability for Claims of Title VII Sexual Harassment

- ▶ Employers must take timely and effective action to prevent sexual harassment.
- ▶ Fuller v. Oakland (1995)
 - ▶ Once the employer knows or reasonably should know of sexually harassing conduct, the employer has an affirmative duty to take steps to prevent a recurrence of that conduct.
 - ▶ If the steps fail and the conduct reoccurs, the employer may be held liable.
 - ▶ You must investigate even if complainant asks you not to

What is Title VII Harassment

Remedial Corrective Actions

- ▶ Must be reasonably calibrated to stop the conduct, to correct the impact of the conduct, and to prevent the conduct from reoccurring
- ▶ Remedial and/or Corrective Action will be evaluated in the context of:

 - ▶ Pass investigation “up the chain” without legal or follow-up

What is Title VII Harassment

RETALIATION

- ▶ Elements of a Charge for Retaliation under Title VII
 - ▶ Plaintiff filed a charge of harassment, or engaged in protected activity in connection to a complaint
 - ▶ Plaintiff's employer subsequently took adverse employment action against the plaintiff – much broader than what is required to sustain a complaint for hostile environment or discrimination, can be any employment related action
 - ▶ The adverse action was causally linked (in time, scope, or proximity) to the plaintiff's protected activity
- ▶ Once this prima facie showing of retaliation is made by the plaintiff, the burden shifts to the employer to articulate a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for its actions
- ▶ If the employer meets that burden of a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for its actions, the presumption of retaliation disappears UNLESS the employee can show that the employer's reason was simply pretext and the Employer's decisions were motivated by discriminatory/retaliatory animus

RETALIATION

- ▶ Retaliation Examples Include:
 - ▶ Unwanted/undeserved lower performance reviews
 - ▶ Transfers, duty changes, taking away or denying privileges
 - ▶ Discipline/discharge
 - ▶ Ridicule/blaming for work problems
 - ▶ Increased counseling, criticisms, or oversight without a change in work performance
 - ▶ Continuing/escalating the prohibited conduct

- ▶ Not all unacceptable conduct with sexual connotations may constitute sexual harassment.
- ▶ In many cases (other than quid pro quo situations where the alleged harasser offers academic or employment rewards or threatens punishment as an inducement for sexual favors), unacceptable behavior must be sufficiently severe, pervasive and objectively offensive to be considered sexual harassment.
- ▶ If the behavior doesn't rise to the level of sexual harassment, but is found to be objectionable behavior, it may not constitute “Harassment” but could still be a violation of District Policies and/or the Code of Conduct as “harassment”, i.e., unprofessional or inappropriate conduct.

Review of Policies & Procedures

- ▶ Does the Policy provide guidelines for determining what constitutes Sexual Harassment?
- ▶ In evaluating the totality of the circumstances and making a determination of whether conduct constitutes sexual harassment, the individual investigating the complaint should consider:

 - ▶ 2. the type, frequency and duration of the conduct;
 - ▶ 3. the identity of and relationship between the alleged harasser and the subject of the harassment (e.g., sexually based conduct by an authority figure is more likely to create a hostile environment than similar conduct by another student or a co-worker);
 - ▶ 4. the number of individuals involved;
 - ▶ 5. the age and sex of the alleged harasser and the subject of the harassment;
 - ▶ 6. the location of the incidents and context in which they occurred;
 - ▶ 7. other incidents at the school; and
 - ▶ 8. incidents of gender-based, but non-sexual harassment.

Review of Policies & Procedures

- ▶ Does the Policy provide guidelines for Investigating Complaints?

Decision Makers and Outcome Letters

34 CFR §106.45 – Formal Grievance (Complaint/Investigation) Process

- ▶ The decision-maker(s), who cannot be the same person(s) as the Title IX Coordinator or the investigator(s), must issue a written determination regarding responsibility. To reach this determination, the recipient must apply the standard of evidence described in paragraph (b)(1)(vii) of this section.
- ▶ The written determination must include -
 - ▶ (A) Identification of the allegations potentially constituting sexual harassment as defined in § 106.30;
 - ▶ (B) A description of the procedural steps taken from the receipt of the formal complaint through the determination, including any notifications to the parties, interviews with parties and witnesses, site visits, methods used to gather other evidence, and hearings held;
 - ▶ (C) Findings of fact supporting the determination;
 - ▶ (D) Conclusions regarding the application of the recipient's code of conduct to the facts;
 - ▶ (E) A statement of, and rationale for, the result as to each allegation, including a determination regarding responsibility, any disciplinary sanctions the recipient imposes on the respondent, and whether remedies designed to restore or preserve equal access to the recipient's education program or activity will be provided by the recipient to the complainant; and
 - ▶ (F) The recipient's procedures and permissible bases for the complainant and respondent to appeal.
- ▶ The recipient must provide the written determination to the parties simultaneously. The determination regarding responsibility becomes final either on the date that the recipient provides the parties with the written determination of the result of the appeal, if an appeal is filed, or if an appeal is not filed, the date on which an appeal would no longer be considered timely.

Decision Makers and Appeals

34 CFR §106.45 – Formal Grievance (Complaint/Investigation) Process

Both Parties must have a right to appeal a determination regarding responsibility or dismissal of a formal complaint or any allegations therein, on the following bases:

- ▶ (A) Procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter;
- ▶ (B) New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made, that could affect the outcome of the matter; and
- ▶ (C) The Title IX Coordinator, investigator(s), or decision-maker(s) had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual complainant or respondent that affected the outcome of the matter.
- ▶ (D) Or on any other basis the District deems appropriate.

As to all appeals, the District must

- ▶ (A) Notify the other party in writing when an appeal is filed and implement appeal procedures equally for both parties;
- ▶ (B) Ensure that the decision-maker(s) for the appeal is not the same person as the decision-maker(s) that reached the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal, the investigator(s), or the Title IX Coordinator;
- ▶ (C) Ensure that the decision-maker(s) for the appeal complies with the standards set forth in paragraph (b)(1)(iii) of this section;
- ▶ (D) Give both parties a reasonable, equal opportunity to submit a written statement in support of, or challenging, the outcome;
- ▶ (E) Issue a written decision describing the result of the appeal and the rationale for the result; and
- ▶ (F) Provide the written decision simultaneously to both parties.

Practical Considerations

The background features abstract, overlapping geometric shapes in various shades of blue, ranging from light to dark, creating a modern and professional aesthetic.

Pitfalls and Obstacles

- ▶ “No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.” 20 U.S.C. § 1681(a).
- ▶ This provision, which is enforceable through an implied private right of action, was enacted to supplement the Civil Rights Act of 1964's bans on racial discrimination in the workplace and in universities. Yusuf v. Vassar Coll., 35 F.3d 709, 714 (2d Cir. 1994).
- ▶ As such, it is important to note that the relevant conclusions and findings here apply to this context as an employment matter, the analysis and evaluation under Title IV and Title IX would carry equal weight.

Pitfalls and Obstacles

- ▶ “The law doesn’t prohibit simple teasing, offhand comments, or isolated incidents that are not very serious. Harassment is illegal when it is so frequent or severe that it creates a hostile or offensive work environment or when it results in an adverse employment decision (such as the victim being fired or demoted). A hostile work environment exists ‘[w]hen the workplace is permeated with discriminatory intimidation, ridicule, and insult, that is sufficiently severe or pervasive to alter the conditions of the victim's employment’.” Harris v. Forklift Systems, Inc, 510 U.S. 17, 21 (1993).
- ▶ Conduct that is “merely offensive” and “not severe or pervasive enough to create an objectively hostile or abusive work environment—an environment that a reasonable person would find hostile or abusive—is beyond Title VII's purview.” Id.

Pitfalls and Obstacles

- ▶ Section 703(a) sets forth Title VII's core antidiscrimination provision in the following terms:

“It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer—

 - (1) to fail or refuse to hire or to discharge any individual, or otherwise to discriminate against any individual with respect to his compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, because of such individual's race, color, religion, sex, or national origin; or
 - (2) to limit, segregate, or classify his employees or applicants for employment in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect his status as an employee, because of such individual's race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.”

Burlington Northern & Santa Fe Ry. Co. v. White, 548 U.S. 53, 62 (2006), citing 42 USC § 2000e–2(a).

Pitfalls and Obstacles

- ▶ Section 704(a) sets forth Title VII's core anti retaliation provision in the following terms:

“It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to discriminate against any of his employees or applicants for employment ... because he has opposed any practice made an unlawful employment practice by this subchapter, or because he has made a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this subchapter.

The italicized words in the substantive provision—‘hire,’ ‘discharge,’ ‘compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment,’ ‘employment opportunities,’ and ‘status as an employee’—explicitly limit the scope of that provision to actions that affect employment or alter the conditions of the workplace. No such limiting words appear in the anti retaliation provision.”

Burlington Northern, 548 U.S. at 62, citing 42 USC § 2000e-3(a).

Pitfalls and Obstacles

“The antiretaliation provision protects an individual not from all retaliation, but from retaliation that produces an injury or harm. ... Courts ... have used differing language to describe the level of seriousness to which this harm must rise before it becomes actionable retaliation. ... a plaintiff must show that a reasonable employee would have found the challenged action materially adverse, ‘which in this context means it well might have ‘dissuaded a reasonable worker from making or supporting a charge of discrimination.’

The antiretaliation provision seeks to prevent employer interference with “unfettered access” to Title VII's remedial mechanisms. It does so by prohibiting employer actions that are likely ‘to deter victims of discrimination from complaining to the EEOC,’ the courts, and their employers.”

Burlington Northern, 548 U.S. at 62-63, citing Robinson v Shell Oil Co., 519 U.S. 337, 346 (1997).

Pitfalls and Obstacles

- ▶ Stated differently, while sexual harassment is typically based on pervasive and repeated objectively sexual or gender related conduct creating a hostile work environment or results in an adverse employment action, an isolated incident of harassment may be so severe as to rise to the level of creating an objectively hostile work environment.
- ▶ Though Title IX (and Title VII) applies to the workplace, and generally to employees and workspaces over which the employer exercises managerial control, it does not apply to “non-employees” over which management has no control and where management does not approve or allow access or harassing conduct to take place
- ▶ “... it is not reasonable for an employee to attribute the actions of a visiting individual to the employment actions of the employer.” See Dempsey v. Harrison, 387 F.Supp.2d 558 (E.D.N.C. Sept. 5, 2005).

Pitfalls and Obstacles

- ▶ Liability for retaliation is MUCH BROADER than liability for Harassment or Hostile Work Environment
- ▶ You can have a finding of no Harassment, but still be liable for retaliation
- ▶ Retaliation can be any adverse workplace action
 - ▶ Undeserved negative evaluation
 - ▶ Change in work assignment
 - ▶ Change in work location
 - ▶ Increased counseling memorandums
- ▶ Supervisors and managers should be very wary of any work place decisions in close temporal proximity to a complaint

Pitfalls and Obstacles

▶ Harassment vs. harassment

- ▶ Harassment - Constitutional or Statutory
- ▶ harassment – Unprofessional conduct, Code of Conduct violations, workplace civility
- ▶ Two very different standards, responsibilities, and outcomes
- ▶ Handled as very different matters, different standards of proof, different outcomes and responsibilities

Best Practices

- ▶ Regular Sexual Harassment & Hostile Work Environment Training for Supervisors and Staff – Legally required
- ▶ Regular review of policies and procedures
- ▶ KEEP SEPARATE “Harassment” and “harassment”
- ▶ Proper Training for Title IX Officers – Legally required
- ▶ Standardized Reporting Forms – New York State Law
- ▶ Clear procedures for investigating complaints – New York State Law
- ▶ 30 Day process from complaint to findings and outcome
