Public Participation at Board Meetings

Ladies and gentlemen, we are about to convene into the public comment period of our meeting. Although state law does not require us to hold a public comment period, we have chosen to do so because we believe it is crucial for us to hear from our community members about their concerns and issues.

Having said that, please note that the Board is here to listen. The public comment period is not designed to be a discussion. Accordingly, please do not expect the Board to respond to your concerns and questions tonight. This is because we take your concerns and questions seriously and want to have sufficient time to process and research issues, if need be. We will, however, respond to your questions and concerns at a future meeting, or have the proper staff member get back to you at the appropriate time.

I also want to point out that under state and federal privacy laws we are unable to entertain any comments or questions about school personnel. Please know, however, that we take personnel concerns very seriously. On these matters, we would ask you to go through the appropriate administrative channels.

(Optional Language): Finally, we recognize that right now our nation and our community are polarized on a number of issues. That said, we want our school board meetings to serve as an example to our students that members of our school board and members of our community can deal with controversial issues in a civil manner and demonstrate mutual respect for one another. We will insist that all speakers and members of the audience maintain civility and respect for any divergent views that others possess.

We ask that speakers please address their comments to the Board directly, rather than the audience. Speakers may address only items pertinent to tonight’s meeting agenda during the first public comment period and may address any district-related topic of concern during the second. In the unlikely event the meeting becomes unruly, the Board will recess the meeting and return once order has been restored. Finally, I want to remind everyone that you may submit written comments to the Board in lieu of speaking during the public comment period, if you so choose.

The Board will now entertain public comments for up to thirty minutes. Each individual speaker is allotted three minutes. The individual time limits (or group) will be enforced so that as many members of the public who wish to speak may be allowed to do so.
