Reminder: Watch Board of Education Meetings Online Starting Tuesday

Dear Hudson City School District community:

Starting tomorrow, Tuesday, Dec. 12, you can watch Hudson City School District Board of Education meetings live on YouTube – and you also can view the meetings on demand whenever it’s most convenient!

Tomorrow’s 6 p.m. meeting can be watched by clicking here and then clicking “Live.” After the meeting, the video will remain posted so it can be watched at any time. Click here for the meeting agenda. The public also is invited to attend in person at the Hudson Senior High School library.

Superintendent Dr. Juliette Pennyman said, “Families have busy schedules and work commitments, sometimes making it difficult to attend Board of Education meetings in person. While in-person attendance is always welcome, live broadcasts that are recorded and posted on YouTube provide the ability to watch online, when most convenient, at any time.”

Board of Education President Willette Jones said, “Broadcasting the Board’s meetings is another way to engage with our community – and for our community to engage with the Board. Families will have the ability to watch meetings whenever most convenient, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. That’s very important for families who are constantly on the go.”

Public Comment segments of Board of Education meetings provide an opportunity for the community to speak to the Board. Currently, online viewers will not be able to participate. However, comments emailed to the board clerk at gaffneyt@hudsoncsd.org will receive a written response.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
The Hudson City School District
